

Instant and personal, direct to the desktop

Immediate Delivery

There's no need to travel to your Regus office to pick up your faxes, or even to stroll down the corridor. Faxes are delivered instantly and automatically into your email

Private and Secure

Delivering faxes directly into your email guarantees privacy and avoids them sitting on an office-based fax machine

Instant Alerts

Be notified via SMS that a new fax has arrived and choose to read this in either hardcopy or softcopy format

Cut Costs

Eliminates the need to purchase personal fax machines and consumables by providing staff with a fax number that routes their faxes to email

A Fax Number for Life

If in the future you expand outside of the Regus network, you can continue to use the service at the monthly charge

Business Continuity Built In

Should a business disaster prevent you from reaching your Regus office, you can access your faxes anywhere you have an internet and email connection

Automatic Archiving

No need to manually file your faxes away, since email archiving will take care of this automatically

Choose a Number Type

You have a choice of numbers you can use for your Regus SmartNumbers Fax service:

Local	A local number anywhere in the UK. Take several numbers in different towns to present a UK-wide presence
0844	A non-geographic number to which callers are charged national call rates
0845	A non-geographic number to which callers are charged local call rates
0800	A free-phone number which allows your customers to fax you, without them incurring any call costs

Choose a Delivery Type

The Regus SmartNumbers Fax service gives you the choice of delivering faxes straight into an email account, or to a physical fax machine if one is close by.

The service works with all the popular corporate email systems, such as Outlook and Notes, and also all the web-based systems such as Yahoo, Hotmail and Google Mail.

Usage Charges

Local	No usage charge to receive faxes

“Before we took the Regus SmartNumbers Fax service, we had to come into the office to pickup our faxes. Today, we can pick them up at home, in Starbucks or anywhere we have an internet connection.”

“Our problem with faxes has always been how to manage these for distribution and archiving purposes. With the Regus SmartNumbers Fax service all our distribution and archiving is taken care of automatically.”

“Business continuity was an important consideration for our businesses when choosing either a fixed-line fax number or one that delivers to our email. The fact that we can now pick up our faxes anywhere in the world gives us the business protection we need.”

“We receive a lot of client orders via fax, and it was critical that incoming faxes were date and time stamped. Regus SmartNumbers Fax meets our requirements automatically.”
